Dear Howard,

A sense of bitter disencouragement is understandable. Yet "the failure" was inherent in the task. The "practical" reasons explain little.

The Country was anal in its refusal by its leaders. Truth is unwelcome for a variety of reasons. Anal other reasons fallow. Of course, Whitewash has flaws. Yet, unflavored, what difference? Some say, "Why attack The W.R.? Who believes it!" A rich comment. Yet McGovern's remarks could apply to your work. More so since The Pentagon Papers served fiscal interests. Your work serves only truth, a feared commodity. You pay the price of greatness.

What document by itself in your opinion is most destructive of The W.C.?
